VISION

Algoa Bay Council for the Aged will be a recognised, dynamic, financially viable non-profit organisation providing a diversity of services to older persons and those with similar needs in the community of the Eastern Cape. These services will promote independence and empower people to lead meaningful and fulfilled lives.

MISSION STATEMENT

ABCA will at all times:

- Adhere to the principles as contained in the United Nations "Declaration of Rights of the Elderly"
- Campaign against Elder Abuse
- Take a leadership role in promoting the concept of community care of older persons
- Work as a dedicated and compassionate team to bring about a brighter future with a better quality lifestyle for those we serve
- Make services, including accommodation and care, appropriate, accessible and affordable to all, regardless of any affiliation
- Prepare people for the challenges of ageing through skills development
- Forge relationships with funder's, maintaining accountability
- Develop and operate projects that will generate income, improve financial viability and enable the funding of services to the needy
- Work towards a supportive, nurturing environment for those we serve, our volunteers and staff.

Old folk happily singing along at a gospel concert held at Eleanor Murray Service Centre. Members love the daily activity programme at the centres, particularly the lone elderly.
